

Saintly Inheritance

Questions for Reflection

(You should listen to the audio conversation with the Rev. Patricia Riggins first.)

1. Patricia Riggins offers one definition of a saint as “someone who expresses Christ’s presence in their lives.” Whom do you know that fits this definition?
2. Who has been a person who has informed you, guided you, nurtured you, and sacrificed for you? For whom have you been that person?
3. The Book of Common Prayer (pg 862) defines the Communion of Saints as “the whole family of God, the living and the dead . . . bound together in Christ . . .” Were you aware of this definition? Does it surprise you?
4. Saints can be seen as being “knit together” in two dimensions - in the present time and across time. With whom do you consider yourself especially knit together in the present time? Across time?
